KESTREL SECTORFLEX FUND (A)

Minimum Disclosure Document

30 November 2024

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Kestrel SectorFlex Global Fund seeks to achieve long-term capital growth through a diversified portfolio that is at least 80% invested in equities, reflecting the sector composition of the MSCI All-Country World Index.

INVESTMENT UNIVERSE

In order to achieve its objective, the investments to be included in the portfolio may comprise a combination of assets in liquid form, money market instruments, interest bearing securities, bonds, debentures, corporate debt, equity securities, property securities, preference shares, convertible equities and non-equity securities. The manager may invest in participatory interests or any other form of participation in portfolios of collective investment schemes or other similar collective investment schemes as the Act may allow from time to time, and which are consistent with the portfolio's investment policy.

The Fund is a global fund with a flexible mandate to invest in a combination of liquid securities, money market instruments, interest bearing securities, bonds, debentures, equity securities, property securities, preference shares and convertible equities. The fund is actively managed and follows a market orientated investment approach towards equity valuation.

DISTRIBUTIONS*

The Fund is known as a Roll-Up Fund, meaning that income generated by the fund (such as dividends, interest or capital gains) is not distributed to the clients.

PORTFOLIO REVIEW

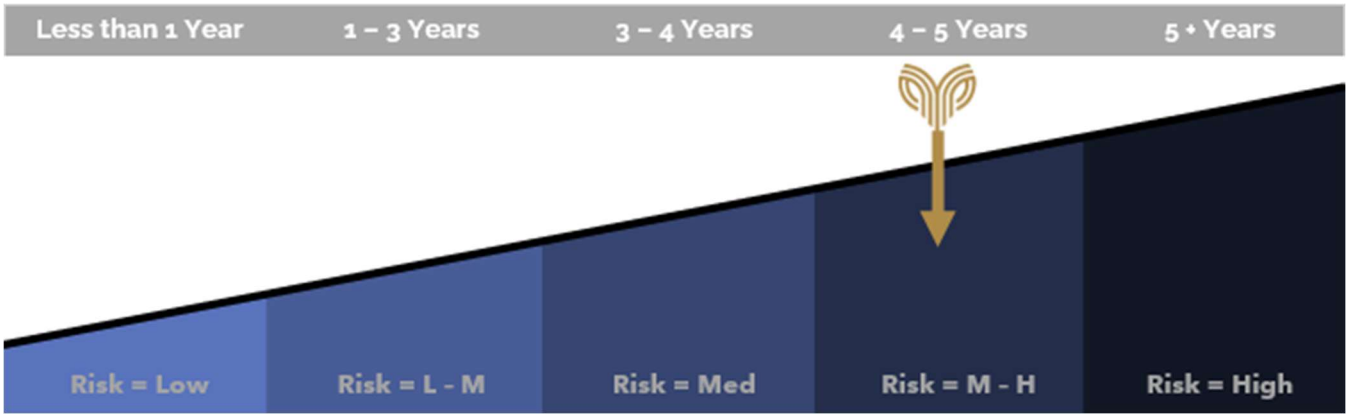

This year saw one word dominate news topics locally and abroad... Elections. More than 70 countries, accounting for around half of the world population, held elections this year making it the largest election year in history. The US elections were especially prominent in the news cycle, earning the top spot in the Google's trending news searches. Additionally, Donald Trump, Kamala Harris and Joe Biden all landing in the top five most searched people for the year at first, third and fifth place respectively.

Extreme weather was another major topic of discussion this year, with 2025 set to be the hottest year on record according to the World Meteorological Organization. According to scientists from Climate Central, abnormally high sea surface temperatures enabled the fast intensification of Hurricane Milton, the fifth-most intense Atlantic hurricane on record. The hurricane also become the 6th costliest US Atlantic hurricanes with damages costing an estimated $85 billion.

In market news, last month was a mixed month for equity markets. The MSCI ACWI ended November up 3.77%, the NASDAQ Composite Index ended the month up 6.30% and the S&P500 Index was up 5.87%, with the worst performer being the Hang Seng Index in Hong Kong, down 4.23%.

Local markets also struggled this month in the green with the ALSI down 0.94% for November.

RISK/REWARD PROFILE

MEDIUM – HIGH RISK

- This portfolio holds more equity exposure than a medium risk portfolio but less than a high-risk portfolio. In turn the expected volatility is higher than a medium risk portfolio, but less than a high-risk portfolio. The probability of losses is higher than that of a medium risk portfolio, but less than a high-risk portfolio and the expected potential long-term investment returns could therefore be higher than a medium risk portfolio.
- The portfolio is exposed to equity as well as default and interest rate risks.
- Therefore, it is suitable for medium to long term investment horizons.

PROJECTED TOTAL EXPENSE RATIO (TER)

Please note: A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's. Transaction costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and impacts Fund returns. It should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including market returns, the type of Fund, the investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER. The TER and TIC calculations are based upon the portfolio's direct costs for the year ended 31 December 2023.
